ABOUT ME

I'm a 19-year-old currently serving as a Bat Sherut at the Ministry of Defense. In my role, I'm engaged in data input tasks that contribute to efficient information management. Beyond my service, I'm passionate about full-stack learning, which involves mastering both front-end and back-end web development. The prospect of acquiring these skills greatly excites me, and I'm enthusiastic about the possibilities that lie ahead.
